

THE EDITOR
SAYS—

A woman from Memphis, Tenn., and a man preacher from Little Rock, Ark., were both whipped good and plenty a few days ago with a strap by a band of men near Earle, Ark., when they sought to nose in on matters that was none of their business. A lot of trouble has been brewing in that community for a long time between landlord and tenants believed to have been started by communists, of which the woman and preacher were affiliated. You will remember it was in this same section that an uprising was engineered by some outside white men a few years ago when about half a hundred negroes were killed. It is dangerous down there to incite trouble between landlords and tenants.

We sometimes wonder how God, with the all-seeing eyes, can overlook or forgive those who practice illicit love on the side and pretend to be Christians in church. To lead a double life and think you are fooling people is hard to do, but how about your conscience, don't you know God sees you and don't you know others see you? Does this paragraph fit you?

This is what a railroad man, who knows, told us: The railroads in the United States during the year, carried 750,000,000 passengers, thirty billion miles without a single fatality. If one person could use all the transportation they could ride 35,000 years at a mile a minute. Believe it or not.

Our guess is that if Big Business, Big Corporations and Big Bankers had any idea that any Republican could have been elected President this fall that Governor Landon would not have received the nomination. This is the same Mr. Landon who advocated the printing of special money to pay off the soldier boys. Oh, well, why worry.

Jesse James and his sons were mere pikers to what some of the lenders of today. A man wanted to borrow $50 on his automobile for six months and what do you suppose the interest charge for that $23.12. Take it or leave it.

Jesse W. Barrett, Republican candidate for Governor, is making a great-to-do about expenditures of State and Government for running affairs and rendering relief. What do you suppose Mr. Barrett would do for the unemployed and the unemployables if he should happen to be elected Governor of Missouri? People have got to be fed if not one way then another, and Mr. Barrett must remember this.

Grover Dalton, of Poplar Bluff, has found another Big Mole Hill to criticize. This time it is Governor Park because he won't give out the names of the fifteen thousand old age pensioners in the State who have received their assistance check. The Governor doesn't happen to have the names himself and Mr. Thompson, the commissioner, hasn't the office force to compile the list anyway. Mr. Dalton would probably say that none but Democrats had received the assistance checks. In Scott county we are certain that more Republicans than Democrats have been favored and we are in a good position to know as being chairman of Scott county board we signed every one of these final vouchers.

Another poor country editor has received a position that will guarantee him with bacon and beans for the next four years, provided he behaves himself. This editor is Kent Wilson, publisher of the Jackson Cash-Book, who has been selected as Postmaster of the city of Jackson. During the Wilson Democratic administration Kent was remembered by the other Wilson with the postoffice.

Walter Hughes has announced for Constable of Richland Township and proposes to make an active campaign for the nomination and says if he is elected, he will play no favorites in performing his duties. Hughes is a substantial citizen of good repute and asks your consideration when you go to the polls.

Those of you who have never been blessed with grandchildren don't know what real happiness is. Of course grandparents spoil the little fellows a lot but that is one of the pleasures of life. Up to now those of our seventeen grandchildren who are old enough to be spoiled, think the Missus and I are just about right, and we hope they will never find out anything different.

The editor and wife were made very happy Wednesday afternoon by the arrival of their daughter, Mrs. Wm. E. Payne, and four children, Bill, Catherine, Jeanne and Dan, from Ballston, Va. They were accompanied by Edward Riechert, a friend of the Payne children. With us at this time are Nat and Mary Ruth Watkins, and John Blanton. Wish our other ten grandchildren could be with us at the same time. And still some people say life is not worth living.

Tennis Players May Register Monday For City-Wide Tournament

Registration of entrants in the second annual citywide tennis tournament sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce will begin Monday and continue four weeks through July 20, the day play will begin.

Tharon Stallings, chairman of the junior chamber tennis committee, asked that persons wishing to compete in the men's boys, women's or doubles divisions register with Kendall Sikes at the Sikeston Hardware Company, 113 East Front street. He said, however, that he and John Cox, who with Sikes comprise the tournament committee, will also accept registrations.

Stallings said the committee hopes that thirty-two will enter the men's and boys' divisions and that sixteen will compete in the doubles and in the women's singles divisions. If entries reach these numbers, the first rounds of the men's and boys' divisions will be run off on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, July 20, 21, 22, and 23; and the first rounds of women's and doubles divisions and the second round of boys' and men's games on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, July 24, 25, and 26. Quarter finals will be held on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, of the following week; semi-finals on the next two days; and finals on Sunday, August 2.

Trophies for winners of each division will be purchased with money taken in from registration fees of 25 cents each, for men, women, and boys' and the same amount for both persons entering the doubles play.

New Wrestlers Win; Mobley to Meet Baker

Ole Olsen and Wild Bill Rush, the "dirty" wrestlers, fell before the strength and persistence of two accomplished men, new to Sikeston fans, in matches at the open air arena Tuesday night.

Jimmy Knox of Carthage, defeated Olsen in two straight falls during the preliminary, taking the first in seven minutes with a monkey flip and the second in seven minutes with a reverse body press.

Morris Bloomfield, an unusually strong wrestler, won the first and third falls from Rush, using a mill wheel to win the first after twenty-four minutes and body slams to take the third in seven. Rush pinned Bloomfield in eight minutes with body slams in the second round.

For the main event Tuesday, Rex Mobley will meet Dago Baker in a no-time-limit match at which Texas rules barring nothing will be used. Mobley, still smarting from his defeat last week, was here Tuesday night to challenge Baker to a return match, and when he learned that Baker was in Nashville, he wired him. Baker accepted.

Laura Louise Ankersheil Married at New Madrid

Miss Laura Louise Ankersheil of New Orleans, La., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto B. Ankersheil of Marston, was married in the New Madrid Presbyterian church at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning to Samuel Mitchell Woolsey of New Orleans. Mr. Mitchell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Woolsey of Austin, Texas.

Candelabra holding white tapers stood on the church altar, which was banked with ferns. Before the Rev. J. E. Travis read the service, Miss Cora Sharp and Miss Mabel Sharp of New Madrid sang Rubenstein's "Spring Song". Mrs. Helen Jones of New Madrid sang Carrie Jacobs Bond's "I Love You Truly", and Mrs. L. L. Parrett of Lilbourn played Liszt's "Liebestraum" on the violin. Mrs. M. C. Mills, who accompanied them, played the wedding march from Wagner's Lohengrin, as well as Mendelssohn's wedding march, and during the ceremony, she and Mrs. Parrett played.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a tea gown of heavy silk, buttoned in the back, and a small white hat. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias, snapdragons, and sweet peas.

Miss Vista Morris of Owensboro, Ky., a classmate of the bride at the Western Kentucky State Teachers' College in Bowling Green, was maid of honor. She was dressed in a tunic-fashioned pink georgette gown and a leghorn hat and carried a bouquet of yellow snapdragons and daisies.

Mrs. George Boone of New Madrid, Miss Virginia Mount of Sikeston, Miss Louanna Fulenwider of Oran, and Mrs. Marshall Puckett of Crenshaw, Miss, the bridesmaids, wore organdy dresses and matching hats of organdy and carried bouquets of sweet peas of harmonizing colors. Mrs. Boone's gown and flowers were pink and Miss Mount's blue. Miss Fulenwider wore lavender and carried purple sweet peas, and Mrs. Puckett was dressed in green organdy and had a bouquet of pink sweet peas. Mrs. Ankersheil wore a lavender flowered chiffon gown, and Mrs. Woolsey was dressed in a white silk suit. Both had shoulder corsages of pink and white sweet peas.

Mr. Woolsey wore a white linen suit. His boutonniere was a white gardenia. Robert Rouse of New Orleans, the groomsmen, wore a white carnation in the lapel of his white linen suit, and Lair Downey of Marston, Walter Edwards and Ed Ralston of New Madrid, and August Little of Sikeston, the ushers, wore dark coats and white linen trousers. Their boutonnières were white carnations. Mr. Ankersheil wore a dark gray suit and a white carnation.

A two-course luncheon was served at the Ankersheil home in Marston immediately after the wedding. A three-tiered cake decorated with sugar doves formed a centerpiece for the lace cloth covered table. Miss Marguerite Wicker of Marion, Ky., was an out-of-town guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Woolsey left Wednesday afternoon for a short trip through Memphis, Vicksburg, and Natchez. After Sunday they will be at home in New Orleans at 6035 Pitt street.

Mrs. Woolsey attended grammar school at Marston and was graduated from the New Madrid high school. She was a student at Christian College in Columbia for two years and then enrolled in Western Kentucky State Teachers' College from which she was graduated. After teaching school in Morehouse and Marston, she went to New Orleans, where she was employed by the D. H. Holmes Company as a better lighting service consultant.

Mr. Woolsey was graduated with A. B. and M. A. degrees from the University of Texas, where his father is chairman of the archeology department. He later received an M. A. degree from Harvard University and is now a certified public accountant with the Shell Petroleum Company in New Orleans.

Miss Edythe Milborn of Memphis is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. J. Y. Holmes.

GOLD BRACELET LOST 30 YEARS FOUND IN FIELD

A gold bracelet Mrs. J. L. Matthews lost about thirty years ago was found this week in a field on the Stancil farm two miles south of Buckeye. The land formerly belonged to her father, Scott Alexander.

When E. P. Holt took the bracelet to Mrs. Matthews she remembered losing it but was not certain about the date. It had evidently been struck several times by farm machinery, for it was mangled. It was well preserved, however, and the engraving of Mrs. Matthews' name, Lucile Alexander, was very clear.

Roosevelt Nominators Rallies To Be June 27

In 1932 Nominee Franklin D. Roosevelt broke a precedent by going before the Democratic national convention at Chicago to receive notification of his nomination for president the day it was made and to respond from the convention platform with his speech of acceptance.

This year, President Roosevelt will break another precedent when, on receiving notification of his renomination by the Democratic national convention at Philadelphia, he will deliver his address of acceptance in the open air at Franklin Field before the convention itself and a gigantic rally of Democrats. He would appear before 15,000 delegates and spectators if he spoke in convention hall. At Franklin Field he will be looking into the faces of 100,000 people when he lifts his voice for them and the listening millions everywhere in the country who hear him open the Democratic national campaign.

The national convention will be exactly presented in its out-of-doors session in Franklin field the evening of June 27. The diagram and appearance of the floor will be the same as if the convention were meeting in its hall. The state delegations will have their relative places around the placard standards which marked their positions at the indoors sessions. The presiding officers, awaiting the president, will direct the assembly from their usual rostrum. The bands which were in the galleries of convention hall, augmented by many more, will flank the rostrum and be strategically scattered around the grounds. Sergeants-at-arms will do their best to keep the convention aisles open for the delegates and will see that the convention has an island to itself. The public will throng around that island and pack the field to its limits. Bright lights will shine on the vivid scene and bring out the colors of countless flags and banners.

This great central rally in Franklin Field will be reproduced without the convention in more than twenty of the largest cities of the country. Arrangements have already been made for meetings in baseball fields, stadiums, and convention halls.

Joseph McGrath, state chairman in Massachusetts, expects more than 100,000 people will try to get into the 19,000 seats in the Boston garden. In greater New York it has been necessary to take over both Madison Square Garden and the Long Island Bowl, and all of the sixty-two counties in the state have perfected organizations for local rallies. In Chicago, Mayor Edward Kelly is taking over Riverfront Park and planning to handle a crowd of more than 100,000, and in St. Louis Mayor Bernard F. Dickman has announced that 50,000 people will gather in and around the St. Louis Municipal Auditorium. In Washington, D. C., Chairman Joseph Davies has taken over Griffith stadium for the evening. Labor organizations have already appointed about 1800 local chairmen to co-operate with local Democratic chairmen of the Roosevelt Nominators.

The Roosevelt Nominators hope to have similar smaller rallies in almost every town and city in the United States. In some they will take the form of outdoor meetings or assemblies in hotels or barbecues and picnics. All of these towns will have their own entertainments. The universal feature of these national rallies will be the reception of the president's address by radio. Committeemen in 3167 towns are already planning gatherings.

For the purpose of conducting these national rallies simultaneously with the one at Franklin Field, the Roosevelt Nominators organization has been formed, with its slogan, "I want Roosevelt again". Membership in the group, which includes admission to the local rally, will be acquired by the payment of $1 or more to the local organization. The members name, together with his contribution, will be registered on the nominators enrollment roster to be presented to President Roosevelt after the convention.

The Roosevelt Nominators will accomplish two purposes: They will have raised by the day of the president's nomination, a substantial part of the national campaign fund; and they will launch that campaign with victory rallies in cities and towns throughout the country by giving assemblages of local Democrats.

The president will begin speaking at 8 o'clock, central standard time.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS FROM PARIS APPEAL

In the House at Washington there are 270 lawyers, 16 bankers, 9 merchants and 27 farmers. In the Senate practically every member is a lawyer. It is the same way in all our state legislatures. And this explains in a large measure why it is so difficult to enact laws our corporations oppose.

On its latest decision our supreme court reminded the country of that famous trap by which an old darkey "ketches 'em a-coming and a-goin'". Previously, it had killed a Federal law for a minimum wage scale in industry, on the ground that Congress trespassed on State functions when it enacted the law. Then, when confronted with a test case on a minimum wage law that had been enacted by a state, it voted five to four that such a law was unconstitutional.

stitutional. From all of which, and with the record of the last two years before it, the country has grounds for wonder if it would not be easier for a camel to go through that eye of a needle than for a Federal law for Agriculture and Labor to go through the supreme court of the United States.

We met a well-to-do friend several weeks ago who takes a very gloomy view of New Deal policies. "What on earth are we coming to and what of posterity," he inquired in a hark-from-the-tomb tone of voice. We replied that we were making a living, that he was making a living and that most everybody else seemed to be making a living, while all the worrying was being done by people who were rich enough to live without worry. As for posterity we asserted that it always had and probably always would solve any problems that were handed down from deceased generations, and that our posterity would be no exception to the rule. When we see all the fishing, hunting, golfing, fun, frolic and contentment being monopolized by people of meager means, and all the worrying being done by the rich, we become reconciled to our lot among the poor and obscure.

All the asylums in Missouri are being rebuilt and modernized under the present Democratic administration. More neighborhood roads are being constructed than under any other administration. More state money is being distributed to rural and town schools than under any other administration. Real estate valuations for purposes of taxation are away below what they were under Republican administrations. The taxes we are paying are much less than under Baker, Hyde and Caulfield. The old-age pension law, long ignored under Republican rule, is now functioning in every county under Democratic rule. These are only a few of the reasons for keeping Missouri in the Democratic column this fall and for refusing to support any candidate who will not pledge himself to vote for the Democratic nominee. We are going to vote for Major Lloyd Stark for governor because he is a business man of unusual ability and because he will make a permanent policy of all the helpful things that have been inaugurated by the present administration.

Well, honor to whom honor is due, as the feller said after the cow he was milking had kicked him off the stool. Now that the old Model T has about passed into history we should confess its virtues while condemning its faults. Millions of lives were saved because it emulated the rattlesnake which makes a warning noise before it strikes. Cars these days are so quiet—so silent under the hood and so free of rattles in chassis and wheels—that a pedestrian usually has been a week in the hospital before he knows that a car had been heading his way. On the debit side, however, is what the Model T did to the country church. Millions of members quit going to preaching because the cranking of that popular car made it impossible to tell what the preacher was talking about. The preacher, in turn, knowing that his sermon would always be spoiled by Model T carryings-on, quit making proper preparation, becoming so fussy and pessimistic that both attendance and contributions dropped to even lower levels. Thus, between the lives it saved by giving warning of its approach and the churches it killed by the noise it made during preaching services, the Model T will occupy a more prominent place than any other car when some impartial historian gives the story of the era in which it was the best seller.

NEW MADRID COUNTY SCHOOL NEWS

State aid reports are coming in now and should all be in by June 30, the dead line.

Any day we are expecting a supply of the state courses of study for the 1936-37 term, which will be an outline for only one year's work similar to the course for last year. By next spring the state department expects to have a new course of study worked out for the following two-year period.

Our pastime last week consisted of grading teachers' examination papers, some of the odd and interesting answers being as follows:

Question—Name some legumes. Answer—Clover and soy beans. Q.—What classes of property are exempt from taxation. Ans.—Poultry, pets and just common things. Q.—What is a barometer? A.—Where soil lodges, it forms a barometer in rivers. Q.—Tell about the Rockefeller Foundation. A.—Invested millions in oil. Q.—Define alienist. A.—A foreign disease something like leprosy.

Q.—What is a Probate Court. A.—Deals with estates of miners and heirs. Q.—What is a Probate Court? A.—Tries petty crimes and divorces.

Q.—What is a petit jury? A.—It is something like a grand jury but is somewhat smaller and possesses more panels. Q.—What is a petit jury? A.—Deals with children under age. Q.—Explain "lobbying". A.—Lobbying is when they don't want to hear the speeches and they get up and walk out to smoke or rest. Q.—What is the cause of diabetes? A.—Diabetes is caused by being bit by some animal that has the germs of hybophibia in its teeth.

Q.—Prescribe first aid treatment for snake bite. A.—Kill a chicken, cut it open and place on bite. The applicants were asked to spell the following words: accept, all right, already, believe, calendar, chauffeur, disappoint, February, government, grammar, laboratory, occasion, restaurant, sandwich, privilege, professor, precede, separate, sophomore, their, truly, villain, village, siege, receive. Can you spell all of them the first trial?

The arithmetic test was not as difficult as it was in March, some of the questions being as follows:

1. Give tables of linear measure, square measure, cubic measure, liquid measure, dry measure, time, calendar, weight, angles and areas. 2. Give rule for finding area of circle, surface area of cone, area of triangle, area of surface of cylinder. 3. Divide .02467 by 2467. 4. Find cost of papering room 18 by 14 feet and 8 feet high at 90 cents per double roll making no allowance for openings. 5. If a 3-foot ruler set perpendicularly casts a shadow 2 feet long, how high is a flag pole that casts a shadow 60 feet long? 6. Find number of bushels of shelled corn in a crib 20 by 16 feet and 10 feet high. 7. Find number of acres in field half mile long and fourth mile wide. How many posts set one rod apart will it take to fence this farm? 8. At 45 cents per foot what would be the cost of a fence for a circular flower bed 24 feet in diameter? 9. A man has half of his money in one bank, third in another bank, and the remainder in a third bank. If the amount in the first bank is $660, how much is there in each of the other two banks? 10. The profit on eggs is 3 cents per dozen and the eggs sell for 45 cents per dozen. What part of the cost is gained? The estimates have all been filed. The average levy in the rural school districts for next year will be 76 cents, ranging from 125 cents in Scott to 20 cents in La-Font. The average levy on the hundred dollars valuation in the high school districts will be 140 cents, ranging from 1.80 in Portageville to 85 cents in Conran. The average school levy for the entire county will be 96 3/4 cents. This levy includes taxes for teachers, incidental, sinking, interest, and building funds.

REST HORSES FREQUENTLY

Danger of over-heating is not as great when horses have been worked all season and have lost considerable flesh, especially when they are well fed, free from parasites, and in good general health. Horses in this condition are in ideal shape to work during hot weather.

Farm work has progressed rapidly this season and so far farmers as a whole have not been compelled to push their horses to

"Already this RED CROWN'S saved me more than I paid for it and I've still got it"

boasts Barclay B. Barnacle

Mr. Barnacle, known throughout the state for his prominence in Tall Stories Club circles, was glad to tell us how he solved the problem of gasoline costs. "We pass on for what it's worth, which doesn't seem to be much."

I USE our car all day, and my son, Barclay B. Jr., uses it all night. That's to take a lot of gas... until we switched to Red Crown, yesterday.

"Seems like right then our fortunes looked up. Why, only fifteen minutes after I'd bought the first tankful I stopped in the bank and found I had 85 cents more in my account. That's about five gallons saved."

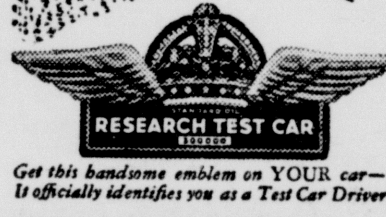

"And this morning, after Junior had driven his girl 30 miles over to Lenoxville and 50 miles back to attend a lecture on Crop Rotation, there was still ten gallons left in the tank!"

"Course some would say Junior might just o' parked down the road a piece and never gone to Lenoxville... but anyhow, I'll be buying Red Crown if I ever have to buy any gas again."

Mr. Barnacle's imagination runs away with him at times, it seems. Certainly it did THIS time!

Of course, no motorist really has any such exaggerated belief as this, about gasoline mileage. But many do have inaccurate impressions. That's why Standard is conducting the most extensive road test ever attempted, this summer. Rather than make claims, Standard prefers to make it easy for motorists to find out the real facts about gasoline mileage for themselves.

the maximum. However, with wheat harvest coming on all at once there is need for getting it finished without delay and it may necessitate putting "green" horses in the collar. Care must be taken when working horses which have done little or no work this season. If reasonable judgment is used in handling teams, there is no reason for any driver to allow a case of heat exhaustion to continue to the point that the animal dies. In very hot weather horses should be stopped frequently with their heads pointing to the breeze and, if possible, in the shade. The driver can study his teams and learn their condition. If no horse is showing the heat, the teams may proceed with the work. Short, frequent stops are always a safe guard.

of chinch bug infestation in Scott county have yet reached the county agent's office. Diligent watch should be made so that in event there is an outbreak it can be controlled without a maximum amount of danger. The most practical and effective means of fighting chinch bugs is the dust barrier or the oil barrier system, says County Agent F. B. Veach, Jr. An effective dust barrier can be made by dragging an oil drum back and forth in a furrow or in parallel furrows. A post or log can be used instead of an oil barrel. Such a barrier can be thrown up ahead of the bugs in a short time. The barrel or log must be kept moving and as long as the ground is dry a very effective stop may be made. A thin line of gas, tar or regular chinch bug barrier oil run along the rim of a furrow away from the bugs makes an effective barrier especially in case of wet weather. This line must be renewed each afternoon because the odor of the oil repels the bugs. Fifty gallons of barrier oil is sufficient to maintain eighty rods of barrier. Post holes may be dug in the bottom of a furrow every ten or fifteen feet. These act as traps into which the bugs fall and either they may be killed by tamping or covering with oil. Sources of chinch bug oil may be secured at the county agent's office. Serious outbreaks should be reported without delay. The extension office will give any assistance that is needed in helping fight such outbreaks.

CHINCH BUG OUTBREAK Although outbreaks of chinch bugs are being reported in different parts of Missouri, no reports

No Balance . . . No Beer!

Brewing, like cake-making and biscuit-baking, is really a matter of knowing how to balance the ingredients. It's just too bad for the beer, the cake or the biscuits if the ingredients are out of balance. It takes skill and experience to bake cakes or biscuits that guests rave about. It takes skill and experience to make Budweiser—the beer that guests rave about. Of course, the Budweiser process is exclusively ours. If it were not, there would be lots of beers like Budweiser. As it is, only Budweiser tastes like Budweiser.

Budweiser's Imported Saazer hops cost six times as much as the finest domestic hops with which they are blended. Budweiser's Saazer hops are rich in the flavors and fragrances necessary to give skillfully brewed beer a plus in taste and bouquet.

Budweiser gets the best of each year's barley crop. Wherever the best barley grows in a season, the Home of Budweiser goes after it . . . and pays premium prices. No barley accepted until our laboratory has analyzed and germinated every sample.

Washington Comment

Fifteen thousand dollars of the Lindbergh ransom, recovered from the Hauptmann garage, have been returned to the unfortunate man who was forced to make the payment. In the long run, the cash did not do the kidnaper much good. This echo of the tragedy that occurred more than four years ago has been a long time getting back to the ears of the public, but the clearly heard words which carry the message of the Scriptural admonition to the effect that the love of money is the root of all evil.

It is to be observed, however, that it is not money, but too strong a love for it, that makes trouble. Money has many legitimate uses. What an awful gathering a national convention, Republican or Democratic, would be if all the delegates were flat broke. Not so long ago, the pleasing and graceful writings of Eugene Field were welcomed as they flowed from his pen. His widow died recently in her home in Wisconsin. She might have ended her days in an almshouse but for the fact that the pockets of her friends were not empty. Andrew Carnegie came in for some hard raps in his lifetime, but many a dull evening would be spent without a book if he had not had coin enough to leave as his memorial a string of libraries stretching from coast to coast.

Incidentally, the business of the federal government, like that of a household, cannot be run on love alone, and the President, the House and the Senate have their heads together in conference as to the best way to make corporations drop their penny in the tax collector's hat. Matters have progressed to the stage where it is said that a "satisfactory" measure will become law. Who can believe any such statement as that? Wise, effective, necessary or just it may be, yet where is the man to be found who really feels that taxes of any sort, which he has to pay, are satisfactory?

Neither taxes nor anything else now holds terror for John Hays Hammond, Sr., who made a quiet exit from the affairs of this life a few days ago, at the age of eighty-one. American by birth and allegiance, he was a citizen of the world, friend of authors and kings, right hand man of Cecil Rhodes in establishing English supremacy in South Africa, and last but not least, inventor of many devices which attracted attention and served the world. Among these may be mentioned a system for controlling torpedoes by radio from shore, projectiles used by the allied forces in the World War, and numerous appliances that promoted the arts of peace.

Fairfax in the State of Virginia has just held an election. No one wanted to be mayor badly enough to file for nomination. The citizens wrote in the name of the man they preferred, and as 49 voters happened to be of the same mind, the person whom they favored got the job. That might be a good way to run a presidential campaign, but a candidate named Aledasabaladiedoeschdae, a family name which can be found in the Detroit directory for 1934, would have no chance. The electorate would simply fall back on Smith or Jones, regardless of politics.

There will be plenty doing between now and the first of November, if one may judge by the brickbats that both political parties have cast already, but the contest will lack the color that characterized elections of a bygone day. One does not have to go further back than the Cleveland-Harrison campaign of 1888 to reach a time when election and the events that preceded it had all the glory and excitement of a circus. The present generation knows nothing of the glare of the parade, the smell of the oil torches, or the savor of the roast ox at the barbecue. There is no fun in a campaign nowadays. All it amounts to is a press one button to start the radio orator and then press another to vote.

CRANKED CAR RUNS WILD INTO MIDDLE TENT; 5 BOYS HURT

Cape Girardeau, Mo., June 16.—Five boys were injured when an automobile, running wild after it had been cranked, crashed into a tent where motion pictures were being shown at Bell City, Stoddard County, last night.

Richard Fisher, 6 years old son of Jephtha Fisher, was brought to a hospital here today suffering with a fracture of the left leg.

The other boys, Loye and Daniel Fisher, brothers of Richard, Ross Bollinger and John Steward, did not require hospital attention.

Cleo Overbey, a farmer of Bell City community, had cranked the car when it slipped into gear and ran into the tent.

MODERATION NEEDED

Even pretty good people sometimes make terrible fools of themselves. Not long ago we heard a political argument. Both parties thereto lost their heads. One man branded President Roosevelt as a liar and thief and rascal. The other countered with the charge that ex-President Hoover was a bigger liar, a bigger thief and a bigger rascal.

That kind of argument does no good, and frequently does a vast amount of harm.

Those of us who think straight know that neither Mr. Roosevelt nor Mr. Hoover can justly be branded as liar, thief or rascal. We know that liars and thieves and rascals are not sent to the White House by their fellow men. As a matter of fact, both men are high class gentlemen, clean and capable and intensely devoted to the interests of their country.

The way we talk about our political men would indicate to a visitor from Mars that those in the opposite party are seeking an opportunity to destroy our liberties, sell the nation to a foreign potentate, and perhaps even burn the White House and dynamite the Treasury Building. We know better, of course.

As we enter another political campaign, would it not be wise for all of us to make a solemn resolve to be temperate in the remarks we make about candidates, all the way from President on down through the list?

Presidents and Senators and Governors and Congressmen and even Constables are, in most cases, good men and patriotic. Let us attack their judgment if we want to, let us sail into their policies, but let us go light on this liar, thief and rascal stuff.—Fredericktown Democrat.

MARKET HIGH QUALITY EGGS

Eggs age rapidly in hot weather. While they may be only one day in age, eggs may be three days old in quality when gathered. This, according to County Agent F. B. Veatch Jr., is caused by allowing them to remain in the nest too long and by them being subject to frequent contact with the body heat of laying hens. Eggs should be gathered at least twice during the forenoon because most of them are laid during that time.

Frequent gathering, proper cooling, cool storage, and frequent marketing preserve the quality of eggs. Eggs, after being gathered, should be placed in wire baskets

MANY NOW SUFFERING FROM TRENCH MOUTH

Residents were warned this week that Southeast Missouri is now being visited by a mild epidemic of "trench mouth".

Several patients are in the Cape Girardeau hospitals suffering from it, and in one town of the district, there are many afflicted.

It is said the disease was traced to a refreshment place where glasses were not washed with soap in hot water but instead were only dipped in cold water and used again.

Persons who have had trench mouth know how serious the disease is, and all residents are urged to use precautions to prevent spread of it.

JONAH IN A DAZE, NOT WHALE, SAYS BIBLICAL EXPERT

Washington, June 15.—The story of Jonah's three-day stay inside a whale arose from a mistaken translation centuries ago, according to data submitted today by George M. Lamsa.

An expert in the Aramaic language of the time of Biblical history, Lamsa argues that the original text simply meant to convey that Jonah was puzzled for three days, or, as current American slang would phrase it, he was "in a hole" for that time.

The ethnologist has made an extensive study of some of the few surviving Aramaic texts of the Bible, including one which was found in the ruins of an ancient church in Persian Kurdistan.

A native of Mesopotamia, he was born and reared in the isolated region near Mt. Ararat, which kept the language of Biblical Galilians and their customs undefined by foreign influences. British occupation of the region following the war opened up the region and its ancient traditions.

He has worked recently with Smithsonian Institution experts. Writing in "Gospel Light," a book published today, Lamsa said regarding the story of Jonah:

"According to the interpretation of dreams in the east, fish or whale means trouble, disturbance and indecision. Jonah in the whale is an oriental hyperbole, and means Jonah is in trouble."

"This American slang would be confusing to an easterner, just as the term, 'Jonah in the whale,' would be to a westerner, unfamiliar with oriental speech."

"Jonah was a poor Jew whom God had called to go to Nineveh to rebuke an Assyrian king who had conquered Palestine. Jonah was to tell the king that Nineveh was to fall and the great empire crumble. This was not an easy task for a peasant like Jonah to do."

"The seriousness of this mission thus placed Jonah in a hole. For three days he could not decide how to go to Nineveh and how to approach the king."

"No, No, Nanette" Will Be Third Week Offering By Municipal Opera

St. Louis, June 16.—"No, No, Nanette," the musical play that created a world sensation and holds many attendance records, will be revived by the Municipal Opera for the third presentation of the 1936 season, beginning next Monday night, June 22, at the open-air theatre in Forest Park.

The piece has all the ingredients that go to make a perfect musical show. Its construction is excellent. It has fun, dance, clownery and color. It is filled with luring tunes, including the two great songs that are familiar to millions, "Tea For Two" and "Want to Be Happy."

For the bright and sparkling musical success, a cast of similar description has been chosen. Two famous stage comedians, Billy Hayes and Billy House, have been imported to fill important roles in "No, No, Nanette." House will be seen in the principal male role of Jimmy Smith, while Hayes will fill the part of the attorney, Billy Early.

Leading feminine parts will be taken by Vivienne Segal, singing star of "Kid Boots" and "The Three Musketeers," this season Municipal Opera offerings, and June O'Dea, attractive ingenue, who played the role of Polly Pendleton in "Kid Boots." Miss Segal will be seen as the lawyer's wife, while Miss O'Dea will play the demure young Nanette.

Others to be seen in the cast of principals are Carl Randall, Audrey Christie, Janet Reade, Noel Francis, June Havoc and others. The Municipal Opera also will present the noted dance group, Olivette & Co., in several feature numbers.

"No, No, Nanette" is the combined work of Frank Mandel, Otto Harbach, Irving Caesar and Vincent Youmans. It was a triumph of the theatre even before it appeared in its sensational musical makeup as the story was originally the dramatic farce, "My Lady Friends." H. H. Frazee, original producer of "No, No, Nanette," spent five years preparing the musical version of the comedy success.

The story revolves around Jimmy Smith, who has accumulated wealth selling bibles. He is possessed of a saving wife and it annoys him that she will not spend money with the reckless abandon of other women. He wants to commit noble acts, spread happiness and all that sort of thing, which gets him entangled with three gold-diggers, causing plenty of comedy and dark situations for the magnanimous young man.

Beginning Monday night, June 29, the Municipal Opera will present for the first time the musical hit, "Sons O' Guns."

ALVIN GASSER REPORTS FIRST COTTON SQUARES

Alvin G. Gasser, who lives five miles northwest of Sikeston, brought three stalks of cotton into the County Agent's office. The largest stalk had five squares, and the oldest square appeared to be about ten days old. Mr. Gasser planted 15 acres of Stoneville 4 from certified seed which he purchased from R. L. Greenwell of Hayti. The Experiment Station at Columbia has had cooperative cotton tests on this farm for the past eight years.

The earliness of this cotton attracts attention because an early maturing variety of cotton is in demand in this county. In normal years, the early variety of cotton will have a large growth before the summer drouth begins, and can withstand insect attacks better than the later maturing varieties. Stoneville 4 has proven to be one of the leading varieties on both sandy and gumbo soils in this county.

Since certified seed was used on this farm, there seems to be a good possibility of other farmers securing good planting seed from Mr. Gasser next spring.

MISS THELMA MURRELL WEDS WARD ENTERLINE

Miss Thelma Murrell, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Murrell of Blodgett, was married here Saturday evening to Ward Enterline, a son of J. W. Enterline of north of Miner Switch.

The Rev. J. T. Self read the service at his home. Miss Corda Traxell of Morehouse and Glenn Seabaugh of Matthews were attendants.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Enterline attended the Blodgett school. Mrs. Enterline is now employed in the commodity department of the ninth district WPA office. Mr. Enterline works for the Scott County Milling Company. They are at home at 262 East Center street.

Bonus Not to Affect WPA Men.

Jefferson City, June 15.—The State WPA announced today the standing of workers on its projects, receiving soldier bonus payments, would not be affected. "Workers receiving a bonus," Matthew S. Murray, State WPA Administrator, said, "will not be discharged."

RECOVERY NOTES

(Compiled by Dwight H. Brown, Secretary of State.)

Cash income of farmers of the United States from sales and government payments during the first four months of 1936 reached $2,079,000,000, a six-year high record. For the like period in 1935 the total income was but $1,970,000,000, and in that year government rental and benefit payments aggregated $221,000,000 as against $62,000,000 in the first four 1936 months.

Summer, graduation and vacation travel during the week ending June 6 served to push retail trade about 12 to 17 per cent ahead of the like week a year ago, a trade survey by the Associated Press discloses.

Continued revival indications in the heavy goods industry are seen in the report of the Association of American Railroads citing 18,467 freight cars on order on May 1, compared with 1,449 on that date last year. Locomotives on order totaled 77 against 54 a year earlier.

Lumber production for the week ending May 30 was 247,839,000 feet, shipments aggregated 232,960,000 feet and new business totaled 214,276,000 feet, the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association reports. This week's output was 90 per cent above the corresponding 1935 week; shipments showed a 65 per cent gain and new business a 15 per cent increase.

Bank debits for the week ending June 3 aggregated 9,139 million dollars, according to reports by federal reserve districts. The amount is 23 per cent above the total reported for the preceding week and 26 per cent greater than the total for the corresponding 1935 week.

Postal Savings deposits in April totaled $1,215,170,000, the U. S. Post Office Department announces. The amount is 15 million dollars above the comparable figure of last year.

Better times are reflected even in the sale of fishing licenses, says Game Warden O. W. Wysong of Clinton, Mo. He points out that during a recent week end on the Osage more than 2,000 anglers were interviewed and every one possessed the necessary card, which is contrary to past experience. The game official also stated that this year he had not found a single instance of a woman fishing while her husband looked on, thus taking advantage of the law permitting women to fish without a license. "Whenever we found a woman fishing, we also found her husband near by with a license, which is a sure sign of better times," he said.

A "widespread upswing" in building activity is reported by the U. S. Commerce Department. Building permits issued in May in 100 representative cities increased 76 per cent over the same month a year ago. In dollars, the permits jumped from $36,254,262 to $63,829,408.

Cram's Reports, Inc., estimates automobile production for the week ending June 6 at 101,898 cars and trucks, against 79,855 for the corresponding week of 1935.

JUNE 15 NOT DEADLINE FOR PLANTING CROPS

June 15 was not the deadline for farmers qualifying under the government's new conservation program to plant soil conserving crops, Leslie B. Broom, the New Madrid county extension agent, said today.

Broom said several farmers had thought June 15 was their deadline because that date was set for producers in the north central region as a whole. Regulations in Southeast Missouri counties are slightly different because the district is in the cotton area.

"Rye, oats, barley, and small grain mixtures seeded in the fall of 1935, not pastured after March 15, 1936, if no soil depleting crop is planted for harvest this year, shall be considered as devoted to soil conserving uses in 1936," Broom said.

Farmers intending to apply for grants must keep complete records of their performances, however, Broom said. These are some of the essential requirements for producers: (1) A good stand is to constitute proof of performance. This has not been changed, but with the weather situation as it is in some areas it is likely that provisions may be made to care for the situation. The producer must be able to show, however, that he made every effort possible and that his intentions were to perform before the drouth and not as a result of it. (2) Receipts for the purchase of seed and other materials. (3) Proof of the kind and amount of seed sown or materials applied and method of seeding or application. (4) Date of seeding or practice. (5) Number of acres upon which the practice was followed and adequate identification of such acreage. This means that the acreage shall be clearly designated as such and not just any acreage taken from the farm. (6) Name of operator and landlord, if any. (7) Any proof which the producer may be able to submit. The more substantial evidence submitted the easier the performance may be checked and delays eliminated.

Harrison Now Assistant Agent

B. W. Harrison, who was bankhead assistant in New Madrid county during 1934, has returned to the county as assistant county agent. Mr. Harrison received his degree in agriculture, from the University of Missouri, during the first week of this month.

Prospects The Best In Years For 1936 Missouri State Fair

Sedalia, Mo.—Although the 1936 dates of Missouri State Fair, August 22-29, are two weeks later than those of three previous years, plans are far ahead of the same period in recent years. More concession space for the 1936 event has been sold to date than had been contracted up to 15 days before the opening of the 1935 State Fair.

Mailing of more than 15,000 Premium Books was completed last week, with about 2,500 copies reserved for later requests from various points in the State.

Secretary Green reports that his office has been almost flooded with inquiries on various phases of the State Fair for the last several weeks, much earlier than in ordinary seasons. From this and other early indications, it is estimated that attendance this year will easily exceed 300,000 people during the eight days and nights of the Fair.

Premiums for 1936 have been enlarged to a total of approximately $43,000, some departments showing as much as 50 per cent increase over 1935, and the attractions budget is more than double that of last year. With more attractions and special events to sell, it was necessary for the fair management to allot considerably more money for advertising and publicity, in a serious effort to cover the entire State this season.

The State-wide Beauty Pageant will present 250 young ladies this year, compared to 156 last year, and there will be three Parish Cattle shows in 1936, against only one last year.

Hugely increased interest in likewise being shown in the State Baking Contest, the State Checker Championship, details of which are soon to be made public, and in the annual State Band Contests.

The American Legion committee, now working on an elaborate program for Legion Day, Sunday, August 23, reports an unusually wide interest in that event.

With a great many innovations in Missouri State Fair already announced, and with the possible addition of several special features which are now being considered, the State Fair appears to be in position to reach its announced attendance goal, or even to exceed it, this year.

Woodshed Catches on Fire

No damage resulted when a woodshed behind the Jackson home at 227 West Malone avenue caught fire Wednesday morning. Firemen quickly put out the flames.

EVERYBODY'S thrilled—when the pleasing ribbon of light gray concrete swings into view.

The nervous tension, generated by ordinary roads, disappears. Conversation resumes. Everybody feels better on the true and even surface of concrete.

The car leaps ahead faster... smoother... safer. Tires sing. The steering wheel feels firm, free from road shocks. Motoring zest is quickly regained.

Concrete roads are safer... you're less apt to skid. You'll stop more quickly, more surely. There's less chance of blow-outs. Light, clean-cut edges make visibility much better at night. Your car operates more economically.

Route your course over concrete. Stay on it. Insist on it.

You have never seen a mattress like this...

PERFECT SLEEPER

It has No Tufts

THE LATEST DEVELOPMENT IN SLEEP EQUIPMENT!

● And no tufts MEANS no tufts in this genuine SLEEPER mattress. It is tuftless all the way through, because of its patented, exclusive spring unit which anchors its insides from the inside out—not pulled together with makeshift cords from the outside in!

SLEEPER tuftlessness is far more than "skin deep." Do not confuse these genuine SLEEPER patented no-tuft mattresses with some which feature just a smooth top. Merely eliminating dust-catching surface grooves, knots, and bunched-up cover and top padding isn't enough. It is equally important to keep the inner padding from being compressed in spots, and the springs from being restrained by stitched-thru cords (tufting).

Genuine SLEEPER mattresses are tuftless through and through. No concealed inside tufting. Not an ordinary tufted mattress with an improvised outside covering. Yet its "innards" can't shift into bumps and hollows. Its springs can't become jumbled. Nothing is "tied down" or under strain. No other mattress at the price will out-last "out-dress," or "out-comfort" it. Let us tell you personally why this PERFECT SLEEPER mattress is by all odds the most practical mattress made—and the ONLY genuine tuftless all the way through mattress!

Our 38th Year in Southeast Missouri

THE JUNE CAMPAIGN
Interest in our June program is fine. Buyers in this and surrounding communities are learning that when we advertise special bargains they are always available. And by the way we must thank folks in New Madrid and Stoddard counties for many nice orders lately. People up in the north end of Scott have been favoring us too. Our boys work hard to merit trade from neighboring sections and results show they are making progress.

ITEM BY ITEM
I've taken the time to go over our list of June Specials, item by item, and My Goodness! I can't see why we do not reach out even further than we do in filling furniture orders. Certain as you live these June prices are remarkable. We were aided in assembling these hundreds of unusual offerings by Lammert Furniture Co. of St. Louis, largest furniture jobbers west of the Mississippi River. Such guidance and help is valuable to our trade as well as ourselves.

A FREQUENT SERVICE
Speaking of Lammerts reminds me that every few days we have inquiries for types of goods that we are not justified in carrying in Sikeston. For such patrons we issue a card of introduction to Lammerts where they may go and see furniture by the acre. Selections may be shipped through our store, our men will unpack, deliver and service the goods and bill will be charged here. For our services a reasonable wage is paid by Lammert. Bring on your special orders. "Every little bit helps".

KEEPING COOL WITH FRIGIDAIRE
Frigidaire protect the food and health of the family—but that is only part of Frigidaire products. We are now stocking and selling Frigidaire water coolers—units for cooling one or more rooms—units for commercial boxes and a dozen other inventions that are little short of marvelous in effect. They are all "daddied" by Frigidaire which mean no worry on the part of buyers as to responsibility.

OFF FOR OLD "KAINTUCK"
We're off for the round up of the Lair Clan at Cynthia, Ky., next Sunday where baskets of fried chicken, baked ham and all the trimmin's will be assembled from many parts of the country. Our delegates will go over the grounds their ancestors trod "away back when", feast their eyes on the beautiful women, fine horses and wonderful blue grass in the production of which that grand old State claims to have reached perfection. As the only Missouri representatives we shall do our full part—at the table.

THE
SAYS—

A woman from Memphis, Tenn., and a man preacher from Little Rock, Ark., were both whipped good and plenty a few days ago with a strap by a band of men near Earle, Ark., when they sought to nose in on matters that was none of their business. A lot of trouble has been brewing in that community for a long time between landlords and tenants believed to have been started by communists, of which the woman and preacher were affiliated. You will remember it was in this same section that an uprising was engineered by some outside white men a few years ago when about half a hundred negroes were killed. It is dangerous down there to incite trouble between landlords and tenants.

We sometimes wonder how God, with the all-seeing eyes, can overlook or forgive those who practice illicit love on the side and pretend to be Christians in church. To lead a double life and think you are fooling people is hard to do, but how about your conscience? don't you know God sees you and don't you know others see you? Does this paragraph fit you?

This is what a railroad man, who knows, told us: The railroads in the United States during the year, carried 750,000,000 passengers, thirty billion miles without a single fatality. If one person could use all the transportation they could ride 35,000 years at a mile a minute. Believe it or not.

Our guess is that if Big Business, Big Corporations and Big Bankers had any idea that any Republican could have been elected President this fall that Governor Landon would not have received the nomination. This is the same Mr. Landon who advocated the printing of special money to pay off the soldier boys. Oh, well, worry worry.

Jesse James and his sons were mere pickers to what some of the lenders of today. A man wanted to borrow $50 on his automobile for six months and what do you suppose the interest charge for that period for that amount was? Just $23.12. Take it or leave it.

Jesse W. Barrett, Republican candidate for Governor, is making a great-to-do about expenditures of State and Government for running affairs and rendering relief. What do you suppose Mr. Barrett would do for the unemployed and the unemployables if he should happen to be elected Governor of Missouri? People have got to be fed if not one way then another, and Mr. Barrett must remember this.

Grover Dalton, of Poplar Bluff, has found another Big Mole Hill to criticize. This time it is Governor Park because he won't give out the names of the fifteen thousand old age pensioners in the State who have received their assistance check. The Governor doesn't happen to have the names himself and Mr. Thompson, the commissioner, hasn't the office force to compile the list anyway. Mr. Dalton would probably say that none but Democrats had received the assistance checks. In Scott county we are certain that more Republicans than Democrats have been favored and we are in a good position to know as being chairman of Scott county board we signed every one of these final vouchers.

Another poor country editor has received a position that will guarantee him with bacon and beans for the next four years, provided he behaves himself. This editor is Kent Wilson, publisher of the Jackson Cash-Book, who has been selected as Postmaster of the city of Jackson. During the Wilson Democratic administration Kent was remembered by the other Wilson with the postoffice.

Walter Hughes has announced for Constable of Richland Township and proposes to make an active campaign for the nomination and says if he is elected, he will play no favorites in performing his duties. Hughes is a substantial citizen of good repute and asks your consideration when you go to the polls.

Those of you who have never been blessed with grandchildren don't know what real happiness is. Of course grandparents spoil the little fellows a lot but that is one of the pleasures of life. Up to now those of our seventeen grandchildren who are old enough to be spoiled, think the Missus and I are just about right, and we hope they will never find out anything different.

The editor and wife were made very happy Wednesday afternoon by the arrival of their daughter, Mrs. Wm. E. Payne, and four children, Bill, Catherine, Jeanne and Dan, from Ballston, Va. They were accompanied by Edward Richert, a friend of the Payne children. With us at this time are Nat and Mary Ruth Watkins, and John Blanton. Wish our other ten grandchildren could be with us at the same time. And still some people say life is not worth living.

Tennis Players May Register Monday For City-Wide Tournament

Registration of entrants in the second annual citywide tennis tournament sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce will begin Monday and continue four weeks through July 20, the day play will begin.

Tharon Stallings, chairman of the junior chamber tennis committee, asked that persons wishing to compete in the men's boys, women's or doubles divisions register with Kendall Sikes at the Sikeston Hardware Company, 113 East Front street. He said, however, that he and John Cox, who with Sikes comprise the tournament committee, will also accept registrations.

Stallings said the committee hopes that thirty-two will enter the men's and boys' divisions and that sixteen will compete in the doubles and in the women's singles divisions. If entries reach these numbers, the first rounds of the men's and boys' divisions will be run off on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, July 20, 21, 22, and 23; and the first rounds of women's and doubles divisions and the second round of boys' and men's games on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, July 24, 25, and 26. Quarter finals will be held on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, of the following week; semifinals on the next two days; and finals on Sunday, August 2.

Trophies for winners of each division will be purchased with money taken in from registration fees of 25 cents each, for men, women, and boys, and the same amount for both persons entering the doubles play.

New Wrestlers Win;
Mobley to Meet Baker

Ole Olsen and Wild Bill Rush, the "dirty" wrestlers, fell before the strength and persistence of two accomplished men, new to Sikeston fans, in matches at the open air arena Tuesday night.

Jimmy Knox of Carthage, defeated Olsen in two straight falls during the preliminary, taking the first in seven minutes with a monkey flip and the second in seven minutes with a reverse body press.

Morris Bloomfield, an unusually strong wrestler, won the first and third falls from Rush, using a mill wheel to win the first after twenty-four minutes and body slams to take the third in seven. Rush pinned Bloomfield in eight minutes with body slams in the second round.

For the main event Tuesday, Rex Mobley will meet Dago Baker in a no-time-limit match at which Texas rules barring nothing will be used. Mobley, still smarting from his defeat last week, was here Tuesday night to challenge Baker to a return match, and when he learned that Baker was in Nashville, he wired him. Baker accepted.

WPA Workers Will Hear
Broadcast On National Meeting Here Saturday

A nation-wide staff meeting of WPA employees will be broadcast over a National Broadcasting Company hookup between 3 and 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Many nationally prominent men will address workers, including Harry L. Hopkins, national works progress administrator.

Facilities for employees of the ninth area will be set up at the high school gymnasium, where The Lair Company will install Philco radios. All district employees are invited to attend.

Miss Laura Louise Ankersheil of New Orleans, La., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto B. Ankersheil of Marston, was married in the New Madrid Presbyterian church at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning to Samuel Mitchell Woolsey of New Orleans.

Woolsey, the groom, was a white carnation in the lapel of his white linen suit, and Miss Ankersheil, the bride, wore a white gown, and Mrs. Woolsey was dressed in a white silk suit. Both had shoulder corsages of pink and white sweet peas.

Mr. Woolsey wore a white linen suit. His boutonniere was a white gardenia. Robert Rouse of New Orleans, the groomsmen, wore a white carnation in the lapel of his white linen suit, and Miss Ankersheil, the bride, wore a white gown, and Mrs. Woolsey was dressed in a white silk suit. Both had shoulder corsages of pink and white sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. Woolsey left Wednesday afternoon for a short trip through Memphis, Vicksburg, and Natchez. After Sunday they will be at home in New Orleans at 6035 Pitt street.

Mrs. Woolsey attended grammar school at Marston and was graduated from the New Madrid high school. She was a student at Christian College in Columbia for two years and then enrolled at Western Kentucky State Teachers' College, from which she was graduated. After teaching school in Morehouse and Marston, she went to New Orleans, where she was employed by the D. H. Holmes Company as a better lighting service consultant.

GOLD BRACELET LOST
30 YEARS FOUND IN FIELD

A gold bracelet Mrs. J. L. Matthews lost about thirty years ago was found this week in a field on the Stancil farm two miles south of Buckeye. The land formerly belonged to her father, Scott Alexander.

When E. P. Holt took the bracelet to Mrs. Matthews she remembered losing it but was not certain about the date. It had evidently been struck several times by farm machinery, for it was mangled. It was well preserved, however, and the engraving of Mrs. Matthews' name, Lucile Alexander, was very clear.

Roosevelt Nominators
Rallies To Be June 27

In 1932 Nominee Franklin D. Roosevelt broke a precedent by going before the Democratic national convention at Chicago to receive notification of his nomination for president the day it was made and to respond from the convention platform with his speech of acceptance. This year, President Roosevelt will break another precedent when, on receiving notification of his renomination by the Democratic national convention at Philadelphia, he will deliver his address of acceptance in the open air at Franklin Field before the convention itself and a gigantic rally of Democrats. He would appear before 15,000 delegates and spectators if he spoke in convention hall. At Franklin Field he will be looking into the faces of 100,000 people when he lifts his voice for them and the listening millions everywhere in the country who hear him open the Democratic national campaign.

The national convention will be exactly presented in its out-of-door session in Franklin field the evening of June 27. The diagram and appearance of the floor will be the same as if the convention were meeting in its hall. The state delegations will have their relative places around the placard standards which marked their positions at the indoors sessions. The presiding officers, awaiting the president, will direct the assembly from their usual rostrum.

The bands which were in the gallery of convention hall, augmented by many more, will flank the rostrum and be strategically scattered around the grounds. Sergeants-at-arms will do their best to keep the convention aisles open for the delegates and will see that the convention has an island to itself. The public will throng around that island and pack the field to its limits. Bright lights will shine on the vivid scene and bring out the colors of countless flags and banners.

This great central rally in Franklin Field will be reproduced without the convention in more than twenty of the largest cities of the country. Arrangements have already been made for meetings in baseball fields, stadiums, and convention halls.

Joseph McGrath, state chairman in Massachusetts, expects more than 100,000 people will try to get into the 19,000 seats in the Boston garden. In greater New York it has been necessary to take over both Madison Square Garden and the Long Island Bowl, and all of the sixty-two counties in the state have perfected organizations for local rallies. In Chicago, Mayor Edward Kelly is taking over Riverview Park and planning to handle a crowd of more than 100,000, and in St. Louis Mayor Bernard F. Dickmann has announced that 50,000 people will gather in and around the St. Louis Municipal Auditorium. In Washington, D. C., Chairman Joseph Davies has taken over Griffith stadium for the evening. Labor organization have already appointed about 1800 local chairmen to co-operate with local Democratic chairmen of the Roosevelt Nominators.

The Roosevelt Nominators hope to have similar smaller rallies in almost every town and city in the United States. In some they will take the form of outdoor meetings or assemblies in hotels or barbecues and picnics. All of these towns will have their own entertainments. The universal feature of these national rallies will be the reception of the president's address by radio. Committeemen in 3167 towns are already planning gatherings.

For the purpose of conducting these national rallies simultaneously with the one at Franklin Field, the Roosevelt Nominators organization has been formed, with its slogan, "I want Roosevelt again." Membership in the group, which includes admission to the local rally, will be acquired by the payment of $1 or more to the local organization. The members name, together with his contribution, will be registered on the nominators enrollment roster to be presented to President Roosevelt after the convention.

The Roosevelt Nominators will accomplish two purposes: They will have raised by the day of the president's nomination, a substantial part of the national campaign fund; and they will launch that campaign with victory rallies in cities and towns throughout the country by giving assemblies of local Democrats.

The president will begin speaking at 8 o'clock, central standard time.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS FROM PARIS APPEAL

In the House at Washington there are 270 lawyers, 16 bankers, 9 merchants and 27 farmers. In the Senate practically every member is a lawyer. It is the same way in all our state legislatures. And this explains in a large measure why it is so difficult to enact laws our corporations oppose.

On its latest decision our supreme court reminded the country of that famous trap by which an old darkey "ketches 'em a-come and a-goin'". Previously, it had killed a Federal law for a minimum wage scale in industry, on the ground that Congress trespassed on State functions when it enacted the law. Then, when confronted with a test case on a minimum wage law that had been enacted by a state, it voted five to four that such a law was unconstitutional. From all of which, and with the record of the last two years before it, the country has grounds for wonder if it would not be easier for a camel to go through that eye of a needle than for a Federal law for Agriculture and Labor to go through the supreme court of the United States.

We met a well-to-do friend several weeks ago who takes a very gloomy view of New Deal policies. "What on earth are we coming to and what of posterity," he inquired in a hark-from-the-tomb tone of voice. We replied that we were making a living, that he was making a living and that most everybody else seemed to be making a living, while all the worrying was being done by people who were rich enough to live without worry. As for posterity we asserted that it always had and probably always would solve any problems that were handed down from deceased generations, and that our posterity would be no exception to the rule. When we see all the fishing, hunting, golfing, fun, frolic and contentment being monopolized by people of milder means, and all the worrying being done by the rich, we become reconciled to our lot among the poor and obscure.

All the asylums in Missouri are being rebuilt and modernized under the present Democratic administration. More neighborhood roads are being constructed than under any other administration. More state money is being distributed to rural and town schools than under any other administration. Real estate valuations for purposes of taxation are away below what they were under Republican administrations. The taxes we are paying are much less than under Baker, Hyde and Caulfield. The old-age pension law, long ignored under Republican rule, is now functioning in every county under Democratic rule. These are only a few of the reasons for keeping this fall and for refusing to support any candidate who will not pledge himself to vote for the Democratic nominee. We are going to vote for Major Lloyd Stark for governor because he is a business man of unusual ability and because he will make a permanent policy of all the helpful things that have been inaugurated by the present administration.

Well, honor to whom honor is due, as the feller said after the cow he was milking had kicked him off the stool. Now that the old Model T has about passed into history we should confess its virtues while condemning its faults. Millions of lives were saved because it emulated the rattlesnake which makes a warning noise before it strikes. Cars these days are so quiet—so silent under the hood and so free of rattles in chassis and wheels—that a pedestrian usually has been a week in the hospital before he knows that a car had been heading his way. On the debit side, however, is what the Model T did to the country church. Millions of members quit going to preaching because the cranking of that popular car made it impossible to tell what the preacher was talking about. The preacher, in turn, knowing that his sermon would always be spoiled by Model T car-ravings-on, quit making proper preparation, becoming so fussy and pessimistic that both attendance and contributions dropped to even lower levels. Thus, between the lives it saved by giving warning of its approach and the churches it killed by the noise it made during preaching services, the Model T will occupy a more prominent place than any other car when some impartial historian gives the story of the era in which it was the best seller.

NEW MADRID COUNTY SCHOOL NEWS

State aid reports are coming in now and should all be in by June 30, the dead line.

Any day we are expecting a supply of the state courses of study for the 1936-37 term, which will be an outline for only one year's work similar to the course for last year. By next spring the state department expects to have a new course of study worked out for the following two-year period.

Our pastime last week consisted of grading teachers' examination papers, some of the odd and interesting answers being as follows:

Question—Name some legumes. Answer—Clover and soy beans.

Q.—What classes of property are exempt from taxation. Ans.—Poultry, pets and just common things.

Q.—What is a barometer? A.—Where soil lodges, it forms a barometer in rivers.

Q.—Tell about the Rockefeller Foundation. A.—Invested millions in oil.

Q.—Define alienist. A.—A foreign disease something like leprosy.

Q.—What is a Probate Court. A.—Deals with estates of miners and heirs.

Q.—What is a Probate Court? A.—Tries petty crimes and divorces.

Q.—What is a petit jury? A.—It is something like a grand jury but is somewhat smaller and possesses more panels.

Q.—What is a petit jury? A.—Deals with children under age.

Q.—Explain "lobbying". A.—Lobbying is when they don't want to hear the speeches and they get up and walk out to smoke or rest.

Q.—What is the cause of diabetes? A.—Diabetes is caused by being bit by some animal that has the germs of hybophobia in its teeth.

Q.—Prescribe first aid treatment for snake bite. A.—Kill a chicken, cut it open and place on bite.

The applicants were asked to spell the following words: accept, all right, already, believe, calendar, chauffeur, disappoint, February, government, grammar, laboratory, occasion, restaurant, sandwich, privilege, professor, precede, separate, sophomore, their, truly, villain, village, siege, receive. Can you spell all of them the first trial?

The arithmetic test was not as difficult as it was in March, some of the questions being as follows:

1. Give tables of linear measure, square measure, cubic measure, liquid measure, dry measure, time, calendar, weight, angles and areas.

2. Give rule for finding area of circle, surface area of cone, area of triangle, area of surface of cylinder.

3. Divide .02467 by 2467.

4. Find cost of papering room 18 by 14 feet and 8 feet high at 90 cents per double roll making no allowance for openings.

5. If a 3-foot ruler set perpendicularly casts a shadow 2 feet long, how high is a flag pole that casts a shadow 60 feet long?

6. Find number of bushels of shelled corn in a crib 20 by 16 feet and 10 feet high.

7. Find number of acres in field half mile long and fourth mile wide. How many posts set one rod apart will it take to fence this farm?

8. At 45 cents per foot what would be the cost of a fence for a circular flower bed 24 feet in diameter?

9. A man has half of his money in one bank, third in another bank, and the remainder in a third bank. If the amount in the first bank is $660, how much is there in each of the other two banks?

10. The profit on eggs is 3 cents per dozen and the eggs sell for 45 cents per dozen. What part of the cost is gained?

The estimates have all been filed. The average levy in the rural school districts for next year will be 76 cents, ranging from 125 cents in Scott to 20 cents in La-Font. The average levy on the hundred dollars valuation in the high school districts will be 140 cents, ranging from 1.80 in Portageville to 85 cents in Conran. The average school levy for the entire county will be 96 3/4 cents. This levy includes taxes for teachers, incidental, sinking, interest, and building funds.

No Balance . . . No Beer!

Brewing, like cake-making and biscuit-baking, is really a matter of knowing how to balance the ingredients. It's just too bad for the beer, the cake or the biscuits if the ingredients are out of balance. It takes skill and experience to bake cakes or biscuits that guests rave about. It takes skill and experience to make Budweiser—the beer that guests rave about. Of course, the Budweiser process is exclusively ours. If it were not, there would be lots of beers like Budweiser. As it is, only Budweiser tastes like Budweiser.

the maximum. However, with wheat harvest coming on all at once there is need for getting it finished without delay and it may necessitate putting "green" horses in the collar. Care must be taken when working horses which have done little or no work this season. If reasonable judgment is used in handling teams, there is no reason for any driver to allow a case of heat exhaustion to continue to the point that the animal dies. In very hot weather horses should be stopped frequently with their heads pointing to the breeze and, if possible, in the shade. The driver can study his teams and learn their condition. If no horse is showing the heat, the teams may proceed with the work. Short, frequent stops are always a safe guard.

CHINCH BUG OUTBREAK

Although outbreaks of chinch bugs are being reported in different parts of Missouri, no reports of chinch bug infestation in Scott county have yet reached the county agent's office.

Diligent watch should be made so that in event there is an outbreak it can be controlled without a maximum amount of danger. The most practical and effective means of fighting chinch bugs is the dust barrier or the oil barrier system, says County Agent F. B. Veach, Jr.

An effective dust barrier can be made by dragging an oil drum back and forth in a furrow or in parallel furrows. A post or log can be used instead of an oil barrel. Such a barrier can be thrown up ahead of the bugs in a short time. The barrel or log must be kept moving and as long as the ground is dry a very effective stop may be made.

A thin line of gas, tar or regular chinch bug barrier oil run along the rim of a furrow away from the bugs makes an effective barrier especially in case of wet weather. This line must be renewed each afternoon because the odor of the oil repels the bugs. Fifty gallons of barrier oil is sufficient to maintain eighty rods of barrier.

Post holes may be dug in the bottom of a furrow every ten or fifteen feet. These act as traps into which the bugs fall and either they may be killed by tamping or covering with oil.

Sources of chinch bug oil may be secured at the county agent's office. Serious outbreaks should be reported without delay. The extension office will give any assistance that is needed in helping fight such outbreaks.

Washington Comment

Fifteen thousand dollars of the Lindbergh ransom, recovered from the Hauptmann garage, have been returned to the unfortunate man who was forced to make the payment. In the long run, the cash did not do the kidnaper much good. This echo of the tragedy that occurred more than four years ago has been a long time getting back to the ears of the public, but the clearly heard words which it carries are those of the Scriptural admonition to the effect that the love of money is the root of all evil.

It is to be observed, however, that it is not money, but too strong a love for it, that makes trouble. Money has many legitimate uses. What an awful gathering a national convention, Republican or Democratic, would be if all the delegates were flat broke. Not so long ago, the pleasing and graceful writings of Eugene Field were welcomed as they flowed from his pen. His widow died recently in her home in Wisconsin. She might have ended her days in an almshouse but for the fact that the pockets of her friends were not empty. Andrew Carnegie came in for some hard raps in his lifetime, but many a dull evening would be spent without a book if he had not had coin enough to leave as his memorial a string of libraries stretching from coast to coast.

Incidentally, the business of the federal government, like that of a household, cannot be run on love alone, and the President, the House and the Senate have their heads together in conference as to the best way to make corporations drop their penny in the tax collector's hat. Matters have progressed to the stage where it is said that a "satisfactory" measure will become law. Who can believe any such statement as that? Wise, effective, necessary or just it may be, yet where is the man to be found who really feels that taxes of any sort, which he has to pay, are satisfactory?

Neither taxes nor anything else now holds terror for John Hays Hammond, Sr., who made a quiet exit from the affairs of this life a few days ago, at the age of eighty-one. American by birth and allegiance, he was a citizen of the world, friend of authors and kings, right hand man of Cecil Rhodes in establishing English supremacy in South Africa, and last but not least, inventor of many devices which attracted attention and served the world. Among these may be mentioned a system for controlling torpedoes by radio from shore, projectiles used by the allied forces in the World War, and numerous appliances that promoted the arts of peace.

Fairfax in the State of Virginia has just held an election. No one wanted to be mayor badly enough to file for nomination. The citizens wrote in the name of the man they preferred, and as 49 voters happened to be of the same mind, the person whom they favored got the job. That might be a good way to run a presidential campaign, but a candidate named Aledasabaladieoeschdaae, a family name which can be found in the Detroit directory for 1934, would have no chance. The electorate would simply fall back on Smith or Jones, regardless of politics.

There will be plenty doing between now and the first of November, if one may judge by the brickbats that both political parties have cast already, but the contest will lack the color that characterized elections of a bygone day. One does not have to go further back than the Cleveland-Harrison campaign of 1893 to reach a time when election and the events that preceded it had all the glory and excitement of a circus. The present generation knows nothing of the glare of the parade, the smell of the oil torches, or the savor of the roast ox at the barbecue. There is no fun in a campaign nowadays. All it amounts to is a press one button to start the radio orator and then press another to vote.

CRANKED CAR RUNS WILD INTO MOVIE TENT; 5 BOYS HURT

Cape Girardeau, Mo., June 18.—Five boys were injured when an automobile, running wild after it had been cranked, crashed into a tent where motion pictures were being shown at Bell City, Stoddard County, last night.

Richard Fisher, 6 years old son of Jephtha Fisher, was brought to a hospital here today suffering with a fracture of the left leg. The other boys, Loye and Daniel Fisher, brothers of Richard, Ross Bollinger and John Steward, did not require hospital attention.

Cleo Overbey, a farmer of Bell City community, had cranked the car when it slipped into gear and ran into the tent.

MODERATION NEEDED

Even pretty good people sometimes make terrible fools of themselves. Not long ago we heard a political argument. Both parties thereto lost their heads. One man branded President Roosevelt as a liar and thief and rascal. The other countered with the charge that ex-President Hoover was a bigger liar, a bigger thief and a bigger rascal.

That kind of argument does no good, and frequently does a vast amount of harm.

Those of us who think straight know that neither Mr. Roosevelt nor Mr. Hoover can justly be branded as liar, thief or rascal. We know that liars and thieves and rascals are not sent to the White House by their fellow men. As a matter of fact, both men are high class gentlemen, clean and capable and intensely devoted to the interests of their country.

The way we talk about our public men would indicate to a visitor from Mars that those in the opposition party are seeking opportunity to destroy our liberties, sell the nation to a foreign potentate, and perhaps even burn the White House and dynamite the Treasury Building. We know better, of course.

As we enter another political campaign, would it not be wise for all of us to make a solemn resolve to be temperate in the remarks we make about candidates, all the way from President on down through the list?

Presidents and Senators and Governors and Congressmen and even Constables are, in most cases, good men and patriots. Let us attack their judgment if we want to, let us sail into their policies, but let us go light on this liar, thief and rascal stuff.—Fredericktown Democrat.

THIRD OF SCOUT FINANCE QUOTA RAISED IN TOWN

More than a third of the Sikeston Boy Scout district's $750 quota for 1936 has been subscribed in town. C. C. Scott, chairman of the drive, said this week.

Only part of the workers have reported, and no general campaign has been conducted. Donations deposited have been collected by members of the Junior and Senior Chamber of Commerce, the Legion post, and the Kiwanis and Lions clubs, who voted to underwrite $125 each and to send committees to call on business men.

The rest of the quota is to be raised from general group donations and from contributions of Scouters in Blodgett, Morehouse, and New Madrid.

MARKET HIGH QUALITY EGGS

Eggs age rapidly in hot weather. While they may be only one day in age, eggs may be three days old in quality when gathered. This, according to County Agent F. B. Veatch, Jr., is caused by allowing them to remain in the nest too long and by them being subject to frequent contact with the body heat of laying hens. Eggs should be gathered at least twice during the forenoon because most of them are laid during that time.

Frequent gathering, proper cooling, cool storage, and frequent marketing preserve the quality of eggs. Eggs, after being gathered, should be placed in wire baskets or trays and allowed to cool overnight before they are put in the case. Storing in wire baskets or traps allows better ventilation and the eggs cool more quickly.

Eggs should be marketed at least twice a week, oftener if good cool storage is not available. Unless facilities are available to properly store eggs, it is impossible to preserve the original quality after they leave the farm and producers' efforts are lost. Consumers are willing to pay premium prices for high quality eggs. The prices paid by the consumer inadvertently affects the prices received by the producer. A small amount of time and care given by the producer will result in marketing higher quality eggs at a higher price.

VETERAN WHO ENLISTED AT CHARLESTON MARRIES

William R. Nelson, a 39-year-old world war veteran of East St. Louis, Ill., who said he enlisted at Charleston in 1917, got a wife soon after receiving a bonus. He went to Kansas City and married Myra F. Brown, 37, a seamstress of Wichita, Kan., and Kansas City.

Nelson said he and his wife would go to Wichita to spend a month with Mrs. Nelson's parents and then would take a wedding trip through southern Missouri and Illinois. They will live in Kansas City because Mrs. Nelson has a good clientele as a seamstress there.

Nelson said he was a stage and radio singer until ill health forced him to retire in 1930.

How Your Utilities Aid In Reducing The Taxes Of Missourians—

TAXES... Taxes, more Taxes... constant consideration of new ways and means to levy them to pay ever-mounting costs of city, state and national government.

Of course, taxes are necessary... the only way we have of paying for costs of government... and of progress. Let us pay taxes willingly and cheerfully... but let us be sure that we have equality of taxation.

Particularly at this time, when there is a clamor for a higher sales tax in Missouri, wouldn't it be well to see first that everyone was already bearing a fair share of the state tax on property, on income, and a host of other taxes? We refer specifically to the municipal plants in Missouri... exempt from taxes on more than $100,000,000 worth of property.

Your utility companies in Missouri alone pay eight million dollars in taxes per year, which reduce your taxes materially... while the municipal plants go scot free from paying their share... Is that just or fair? If every industry in the state were doing its fair share in tax paying... just as you and your public utility companies do... your tax burden would be lightened considerably.

JONAH IN A DAZE. NOT WHALE. SAYS BIBLICAL EXPERT

Washington, June 15.—The story of Jonah's three-day stay inside a whale arose from a mistaken translation centuries ago, according to data submitted today by George M. Lamsa.

An expert in the Aramaic language of the time of Biblical history, Lamsa argues that the original text simply meant to convey that Jonah was puzzled for three days, or, as current American slang would phrase it, he was "in a hole" for that time.

The ethnologist has made an extensive study of some of the few surviving Aramaic texts of the Bible, including one which was found in the ruins of an ancient church in Persian Kurdistan.

A native of Mesopotamia, he was born and reared in the isolated region near Mt. Ararat, which kept the language of Biblical Galilians and their customs undefiled by foreign influences. British occupation of the region following the war opened up the region and its ancient traditions.

He has worked recently with Smithsonian Institution experts. Writing in "Gospel Light," a book published today, Lamsa said regarding the story of Jonah: "According to the interpretation of dreams in the east, fish or whale means trouble, disturbance and indecision. Jonah in the whale is an oriental hyperbole, and means Jonah is in trouble."

"This American slang would be confusing to an easterner, just as the term, 'Jonah in the whale,' would be to a westerner, unfamiliar with oriental speech. 'Jonah was a poor Jew whom God had called to go to Nineveh to rebuke an Assyrian king who had conquered Palestine. Jonah was to tell the king that Nineveh was to fall and the great empire crumble. This was not an easy task for a peasant like Jonah to do.'"

The seriousness of this mission thus placed Jonah in a hole. For three days he could not decide how to go to Nineveh and how to approach the king."

"No, No, Nanette" Will Be Third Week Offering By Municipal Opera

St. Louis, June 16.—"No, No, Nanette," the musical play that created a world sensation and holds many attendance records, will be revived by the Municipal Opera for the third presentation of the 1936 season, beginning next Monday night, June 22, at the open-air theatre in Forest Park.

The piece has all the ingredients that go to make a perfect musical show. Its construction is excellent. It has fun, dance, clownery and color. It is filled with lilting tunes, including the two great song hits that are familiar to millions, "Tea For Two" and "Want to Be Happy."

For the bright and sparkling musical success, a cast of similar description has been chosen. Two famous stage comedians, Billy Raynes and Billy House, have been imported to fill important roles in "No, No, Nanette." House will be seen in the principal male role of Jimmy Smith, while Raynes will fill the part of the attorney, Billy Early.

Leading feminine parts will be taken by Vivienne Segal, singing star of "Kid Boots" and "The Three Musketeers," this season Municipal Opera offerings, and June O'Dea, attractive ingenue, who played the role of Polly Pendleton in "Kid Boots." Miss Segal will be seen as the lawyer's wife, while Miss O'Dea will play the demure young Nanette.

Others to be seen in the cast of principals are Carl Randall, Audrey Christie, Janet Reader, Noel Francis, June Havoc and others. The Municipal Opera also will present the noted dance group, Olivette & Co., in several feature numbers.

"No, No, Nanette" is the combined work of Frank Mandel, Otto Harbach, Irving Caesar and Vincent Youmans. It was a triumph of the theatre even before it appeared in its sensational musical makeup as the story was originally the dramatic farce, "My Lady Friends." H. H. Frazee, original producer of "No, No, Nanette," spent five years preparing the musical version of the comedy success.

The story revolves around Jimmy Smith, who has accumulated wealth selling bibles. He is possessed of a saving wife and it annoys him that she will not spend money with the reckless abandon of other women. He wants to commit noble acts, spread happiness and all that sort of thing, which gets him entangled with three gold-diggers, causing plenty of comedy and dark situations for the magnanimous young man.

Beginning Monday night, June 22, the Municipal Opera will present for the first time the musical hit, "Sons O' Guns."

ALVIN GASSER REPORTS FIRST COTTON SQUARES

Alvin G. Gasser, who lives five miles northwest of Sikeston, brought three stalks of cotton into the County Agent's office. The largest stalk had five squares, and the oldest square appeared to be about ten days old. Mr. Gasser planted 15 acres of Stoneville 4 from certified seed which he purchased from R. L. Greenwell of Hayti. The Experiment Station at Columbia has had cooperative cotton tests on this farm for the past eight years.

The earliness of this cotton attracts our attention because an early maturing variety of cotton is in demand in this county. In normal years, the early variety of cotton will have a large growth before the summer drouth begins, and can withstand insect attacks better than the later maturing varieties. Stoneville 4 has proven to be one of the leading varieties on both sandy and gumbo soils in this county.

Since certified seed was used on this farm, there seems to be a good possibility of other farmers securing good planting seed from Mr. Gasser next spring.

MISS THELMA MURRELL WEDS WARD ENTERLINE

Miss Thelma Murrell a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Murrell of Blodgett, was married here Saturday evening to Ward Enterline, a son of J. W. Enterline of north of Miner Switch.

The Rev. J. T. Self read the service at his home. Miss Corda Traxell of Morehouse and Glenn Seabough of Matthews were attendants.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Enterline attended the Blodgett school. Mrs. Enterline is now employed in the commodity department of the ninth district WPA office. Mr. Enterline works for the Scott County Milling Company. They are at home at 262 East Center street.

Bonus Not to Affect WPA Men.

Jefferson City, June 15.—The State WPA announced today the standing of workers on its projects, receiving soldier bonus payments, would not be affected. "Workers receiving a bonus," Matthew S. Murray, State WPA Administrator, said, "will not be discharged."

Others to be seen in the cast of principals are Carl Randall, Audrey Christie, Janet Reader, Noel Francis, June Havoc and others. The Municipal Opera also will present the noted dance group, Olivette & Co., in several feature numbers.

"No, No, Nanette" is the combined work of Frank Mandel, Otto Harbach, Irving Caesar and Vincent Youmans. RECOVERY NOTES

(Compiled by Dwight H. Brown, Secretary of State.)

Cash income of farmers of the United States from sales and government payments during the first four months of 1936 reached $2,079,000,000, a six-year high record. For the like period in 1935 the total income was but $1,970,000,000, and in that year government rental and benefit payments aggregated $221,000,000 as against $62,000,000 in the first four 1936 months.

Summer, graduation and vacation travel during the week ending June 6 served to push retail trade about 12 to 17 per cent ahead of the like week a year ago, a trade survey by the Associated Press discloses.

Continued revival indications in the heavy goods industry are seen in the report of the Association of American Railroads citing 18,467 freight cars on order on May 1, compared with 1,449 on that date last year. Locomotives on order totaled 77 against 54 a year earlier.

Lumber production for the week ending May 30 was 247,839,000 feet, shipments aggregated 232,960,000 feet and new business totaled 214,276,000 feet, the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association reports. This week's output was 90 per cent above the corresponding 1935 week; shipments showed a 65 per cent gain and new business a 15 per cent increase.

Bank debits for the week ending June 3 aggregated 9,139 million dollars, according to reports by federal reserve districts. The amount is 23 per cent above the total reported for the preceding week and 26 per cent greater than the total for the corresponding 1935 week.

Postal Savings deposits in April totaled $1,215,170,000, the U. S. Post Office Department announces. The amount is 15 million dollars above the comparable figure of last year.

Better times are reflected even in the sale of fishing licenses, says Game Warden O. W. Wyson of Clinton, Mo. He points out that during a recent week end on the Osage more than 2,000 anglers were interviewed and every one possessed the necessary card, which is contrary to past experience. The game official also stated that this year he had not found a single instance of a woman fishing while her husband looked on, thus taking advantage of the law permitting women to fish without a license. "When we also found a woman fishing by with a license, which is a sure sign of better times," he said.

A "widespread upswing" in building activity is reported by the U. S. Commerce Department. Building permits issued in May in 100 representative cities increased 76 per cent over the same month a year ago. In dollars, the permits jumped from $36,254,262 to $63,829,408.

Cram's Reports, Inc., estimates automobile production for the week ending June 6 at 101,896 cars and trucks, against 79,855 for the corresponding week of 1935.

JUNE 15 NOT DEADLINE FOR PLANTING CROPS

June 15 was not the deadline for farmers qualifying under the government's new conservation program to plant soil conserving crops, Leslie B. Broom, the New Madrid county extension agent, said this week.

Broom said several farmers had thought June 15 was their deadline because that date was set for producers in the north central region as a whole. Regulations in Southeast Missouri counties are slightly different because the district is in the cotton area.

"Rye, oats, barley, and small grain mixtures seeded in the fall of 1935, not pastured after March 15, 1936, if no soil depleting crop is planted for harvest this year, shall be considered as devoted to soil conserving uses in 1936," Broom said.

Farmers intending to apply for grants must keep complete records of their performances, however, Broom said. These are some of the essential requirements for producers: (1) A good stand is to constitute proof of performance. This has not been changed, but with the weather situation as it is in some areas it is likely that provisions may be made to care for the situation. The producer must be able to show, however, that he made every effort possible and that his intentions were to perform before the drouth and not as a result of it. (2) Receipts for the purchase of seed and other materials. (3) Proof of the kind and amount of seed sown or materials applied and method of seeding or application. (4) Date of seeding or practice. (5) Number of acres upon which the practice was followed and adequate identification of such acreage. This means that the acreage shall be clearly designated as such and not just any acreage taken from the farm. (6) Name of operator and landlord, if any. (7) Any proof which the producer may be able to submit. The more substantial evidence submitted the easier the performance may be checked and delays eliminated.

Harrison Now Assistant Agent

B. W. Harrison, who was bankhead assistant in New Madrid county during 1934, has returned to the county as assistant county agent. Mr. Harrison received his degree in agriculture, from the University of Missouri, during the first week of this month.

Prospects The Best In Years For 1936 Missouri State Fair

Sedalia, Mo.—Although the 1936 dates of Missouri State Fair, August 22-29, are two weeks later than those of three previous years, plans are far ahead of the same period in recent years. More concession space for the 1936 event has been sold to date than had before the opening of the 1935 State Fair.

Mailing of more than 15,000 Premium Books was completed last week, with about 2,500 copies reserved for later requests from various points in the State.

Secretary Green reports that his office has been almost flooded with inquiries on various phases of the State Fair for the last several weeks, much earlier than in ordinary seasons. From this and other early indications, it is estimated that attendance this year will easily exceed 300,000 people during the eight days and nights of the Fair.

Premiums for 1936 have been enlarged to a total of approximately $43,000, some departments showing as much as 50 per cent increase over 1935, and the attractions budget is more than double that of last year. With more attractions and special events to sell, it was necessary for the fair management to allot considerably more money for advertising and publicity, in a serious effort to cover the entire State this season.

The State-wide Beauty Pageant will present 250 young ladies this year, compared to 156 last year, and there will be three Parish Cattle shows in 1936, against only one last year.

Hugely increased interest in

likewise being shown in the State Baking Contest, the State Checker Championship, details of which are soon to be made public, and in the annual State Band Contests.

The American Legion committee, now working on an elaborate program for Legion Day, Sunday, August 23, reports an unusually wide interest in that event.

With a great many innovations in Missouri State Fair already announced, and with the possible addition of several special features which are now being considered, the State Fair appears to be in position to reach its announced attendance goal, or even to exceed it, this year.

Woodshed Catches on Fire

No damage resulted when a woodshed behind the Jackson home at 227 West Malone avenue caught fire Wednesday morning. Firemen quickly put out the flames.

EVERYBODY'S thrilled—when the pleasing ribbon of light gray concrete swings into view.

The nervous tension, generated by ordinary roads, disappears. Conversation resumes. Everybody feels better on the true and even surface of concrete.

The car leaps ahead faster... smoother... safer. Tires sing. The steering wheel feels firm, free from road shocks. Motoring zest is quickly regained.

Concrete roads are safer... you're less apt to skid. You'll stop more quickly, more surely. There's less chance of blow-outs. Light, clean-cut edges make visibility much better at night. Your car operates more economically.

Route your course over concrete. Stay on it. Insist on it.

You have never seen a mattress like this...

PERFECT SLEEPER

It has No Tufts

THE LATEST DEVELOPMENT IN SLEEP EQUIPMENT!

● And no tufts MEANS no tufts in this genuine SLEEPER mattress. It is tuftless all the way through, because of its patented, exclusive spring unit which anchors its insides from the inside out—not pulled together with makeshift cords from the outside in!

SLEEPER tuftlessness is far more than "skin deep." Do not confuse these genuine SLEEPER patented no-tuft mattresses with some which feature just a smooth top. Merely eliminating dust-catching surface grooves, knots, and bunched-up cover and top padding isn't enough. It is equally important to keep the inner padding from being compressed in spots, and the springs from being restrained by stitched-thru cords (tufting).

Genuine SLEEPER mattresses are tuftless through and through. No concealed inside tufting. Not an ordinary tufted mattress with an improvised outside covering. Yet its "innards" can't shift into bumps and hollows. Its springs can't become jumbled. Nothing is "tied down" or under strain. No other mattress at the price will out-last "out-dress," or "out-comfort" it. Let us tell you personally why this PERFECT SLEEPER mattress is by all odds the most practical mattress made—and the ONLY genuine tuftless all the way through mattress!

HOUSE FURNISHINGS

Our 38th Year in Southeast Missouri

THE JUNE CAMPAIGN

Interest in our June program is fine. Buyers in this and surrounding communities are learning that when we advertise special bargains they are always available. And by the way we must thank folks in New Madrid and Stoddard counties for many nice orders lately. People up in the north end of Scott have been favoring us too. Our boys work hard to merit trade from neighboring sections and results show they are making progress.

ITEM BY ITEM

I've taken the time to go over our list of June Specials, item by item, and My Goodness! I can't see why we do not reach out even further than we do in filling furniture orders. Certain as you live these June prices are remarkable. We were aided in assembling these hundreds of unusual offerings by Lammert Furniture Co. of St. Louis, largest furniture jobbers west of the Mississippi River. Such guidance and help is valuable to our trade as well as ourselves.

A FREQUENT SERVICE

Speaking of Lammerts reminds me that every few days we have inquiries for types of goods that we are not justified in carrying in Sikeston. For such patrons we issue a card of introduction to Lammerts where they may go and see furniture by the acre. Selections may be shipped through our store, our men will unpack, deliver and service the goods and bill will be charged here. For our services a reasonable wage is paid by Lammert. Bring on your special orders. "Every little bit helps".

KEEPING COOL WITH FRIGIDAIRE

Frigidaire protect the food and health of the family—but that is only part of Frigidaire products. We are now stocking and selling Frigidaire water coolers—units for cooling one or more rooms—units for commercial boxes and a dozen other inventions that are little short of marvelous in effect. They are all "daddied" by Frigidaire which mean no worry on the part of buyers as to responsibility.

OFF FOR OLD "KAINTUCK"

We're off for the round up of the Lair Clan at Cynthia, Ky., next Sunday where baskets of fried chicken, baked ham and all the trimmings will be assembled from many parts of the country. Our delegates will go over the grounds their ancestors trod "away back when", feast their eyes on the beautiful women, fine horses and wonderful blue grass in the production of which that grand old State claims to have reached perfection. As the only Missouri representatives we shall do our full part—at the table.
